The integrated Newsletter of the European PhD on Social Representations and Communication and of the So.Re.Com. THEmatic NETWORK

Release of the Italian Edition of Serge Moscovici's seminal work "La Psicanalisi, la sua immagine e il suo pubblico"

We are pleased to announce that the Italian edition of Moscovici's seminal work "La Psicanalisi, la sua immagine e il suo pubblico", is now available (ISBN: 9788840015033 - Publisher: Edizioni Unicopli).

The original editions of 1961 and 1976 "La Psychanalyse, son image et son public" are recognised respectively as the birthdate and the re-writing of the Social Representation theory by Moscovici, which has been defined by Leon Festinger as "the most important and creative thinker in modern social psychology". The Italian Edition by Annamaria Silvana de Rosa of this first masterpiece (translated by Luca Tateo with a joint Preface by him and Antonio Iannaccone) has a rich introduction by A.S. de Rosa, dealing with the development of the theory since its embryogenesis, even before its baptism in 1961. A "meta-theoretical analysis of the two editions is also presented, based on systematic comparison of the main paradigmatic elements distilled from the two monumental books, and integrated by the comparison between their respective Tables of Contents and between their Bibliographies. The Introduction also includes a brief overview of the main paths of 50 years of history from an idea to "more than a theory" and presents the year 2011 as both a "birthday", celebrated by a rich series of events and publications, and a "new baptism", illustrating the new initiatives on editorial plan (with the launch of dedicated book series) and from research perspective (with the launch of the follow-up and extended bi-national (Italy-France) research programme of the "Psychoanalysis, its image and its public in the social network era", led by Annamaria Silvana de Rosa with the support of the European PhD on Social Representations and Communication doctoral research trainees: Emanuele Fino and Charline Leblanc

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of one of the most estimated members of our scientific community, Prof. Michel-Louis Rouquette.

For years he has actively contributed to the European PhD on S.R. & C. program activities, involving two institutions (Montpellier and Paris V) where he has directed research on social representations. His contribution has left traces in our young research trainees and colleagues who have met him in many occasions since 1995. Our sadness can only be mitigated by the knowledge that his work will live on.
