So.Re.Com. Joint-IDP: activity report for month 6 (March 2014)

As foreseen by the So.Re.Com. Joint-IDP timeline (http://www.europhd.eu/html/_onda01/10/05.01.00.00.shtml) the following activities have been realized and implemented during the month of March 2014:

1. Dissemination of the project information at the following events:
 - a. INTED 2014 – 8th International Technology, Education and Development Conference (Valencia; 10th - 12th March 2014).
Prof. Annamaria de Rosa participated to the event with a lecture on "The So.Re.Com. "A.S. De Rosa" @-Library: a Multi-Purpose Web-Platform in the Supra-Disciplinary Field of Social Representations and Communication"
2. Dissemination of the project information through the SoReCom.THE.NET.@-NEWS
3. Development of the SoReCom "A.S. de Rosa" @-library and of the integrated community of the SoReCom Joint-IDP and of the SoReCom THEmatic NETWORK
4. Hosting a visiting professor from France:
René Ecochard (Université Claude Bernard Lyon I): planning scientific collaboration
5. Day-to-day management (correspondence with partners, website updates, potential applicants, etc.)

So.Re.Com. Joint-IDP call for fellowships

The So.Re.Com. Joint – Innovative Doctoral Program is the best evaluated (with the highest mark 98,8/100 marks) among the 1147 projects submitted within the 2013 People-ITN call and is coordinated by Sapienza University of Rome. In its role as mono-contractor Institution, Sapienza University is issuing a call for 13 fellowships within the framework of the So.Re.Com. Joint-IDP project for Early Stage Researchers.

Built on the experience of both the European/International Joint PhD in S.R. & C. awarding a recognized joint degree since 1996, and the EU approved So.Re.Com. THEmatic NETwork, this international joint doctoral programme includes 8 universities, 2 private companies and 1 public research institute in 8 European countries (AT, CH, CZ, ES, FR, IT, RO, SE), and 6 universities in United States, Canada, Brazil, Argentina, Mexico and China. The goal is to provide doctoral training in Social Representations and Communication, a supra-disciplinary research area of the social sciences that studies the social construction of everyday knowledge in social spheres and media, disseminating European excellence beyond the EU boundaries and attracting the best ESR from abroad. Structured into transnational teams by common research area and complementary multi-methodological approaches, this So.Re.Com. Joint-IDP guarantees a well-tested training structure including:

- an innovative integrated physical and virtual campus, where world-class academic scientists, internationally recognised experts, experienced researchers and ESR cooperate face-to face and online “for” and “by” research;
- multiple supervision via tutoring and co-tutoring by at least three tutors in different countries;
- individual mobility for ESR at research centres for secondments;
- collective international mobility of trainees and teaching staff during International Summer Schools and Lab meetings;
- learning by doing (including transferable skills) in academic and non-academic settings;
- worldwide access to common web platform, as tool for documentation, networking, training and monitoring trainees’ progress;
- high tech infrastructure and lab facilities;
- quality evaluation system;
- officialisation of the joint degree;
- active integration in the world-wide SoReComTHEmatic NETwork;
- enhancement of career prospects both in and outside academia.

Selected applicants will be enrolled in the European/International Joint PhD in Social Representations and Communication to participate in an on-going project led since 20 years by the director of the European PhD on Social Representations and Communication Research Centre and Multimedia Lab who has designed specific web-tools (including the on-line grid for the meta-theoretical analysis and the related web-inventories) for the purpose of conducting an empirical meta-theoretical analysis of the literature on Social Representations. The specific project aim is to take stock of the scientific field developed in more than 50 years by conducting an empirical meta-theoretical analysis of the literature on Social Representations, mapping its development, the related research methods, the thematic areas and their impact on the various applied fields within the multi-generational community of scientists and across different geo-cultural contexts.

European/International Joint PhD announcement for a.y. 2014-2015

The European/International Joint PhD in S.R. & C. informs that the announcement for a.y. 2014-2015 is available on its website (http://www.euophd.eu/html/_onda01/04/08.00.00.00.shtml). The deadline for submitting application is 31st May 2014. SoR.Com THEmatic NETwork partners and colleagues are kindly invited to disseminate this announcement among the potential applicants and invite their best students to apply.

The European/International Joint PhD in S.R. & C. represents a progressive educational curriculum for training early stage researchers through research in a scientific and paradigmatic field inspired by the Social Representations Theory and Communication studies. Although having a special focus on Social Psychology and media studies, it draws in a wide scientific community across continents and many disciplines dealing with social sciences and it has created a Thematic Network of Excellence approved by the European Commission (<http://www.euophd.eu/SoReComTHEmaticNETwork>)

The European/International Joint PhD in S.R. & C. coordinated by Sapienza University of Rome, includes 17 universities in 9 European countries (AT, CH, CZ, ES, FR, IT, PT, RO, UK), 7 universities in North America (Canada, USA), Latin America (Argentina, Brazil, Mexico) and Asia (China), 1 French National Research Institute, 1 social sciences foundation (Maison des Sciences de l'Homme) and 3 SMEs in 3 EU countries (IE, IT, SE). In its role as co-ordinator diplomas are issued by Sapienza University with the signature of the rectors/presidents of the six universities which jointly confer the degree: University of Rome Sapienza (ITALY), University of Aix-en-Provence, the University of Montpellier III "Paul Valéry" and University "Lumière" Lyon 2 (FRANCE), University A. I. Cuza of Iasi (ROMANIA), and Masaryk University, Brno (CZECH REPUBLIC). The Research Trainees have then access to a large number of academic infrastructures and are followed by 1 main tutor and 2 international co-tutors in at least 3 of the above mentioned countries. Moreover, at the European/International Joint PhD Multimedia Lab and Research Centre in Rome they will participate in innovative scientific and didactic activities like the International Lab Meetings and Summer Schools using technologically advanced resources.

We are pleased to announce that the European/International Joint PhD in Social Representations and Communication has submitted to the Sapienza Doctoral Evaluation Committee its proposal of renewal for the a.y. 2014/2015. The European/Joint International PhD has fulfilled all the following criteria set by the Italian Ministry for University and Research for the accreditation of doctoral programmes:

1. The European/International Joint PhD in S.R. & C. is a consortium of universities (among which at least one Italian university) that delivers a joint diploma
2. The doctorate's Scientific and Teaching Board scientific production for the last five years has been positively evaluated
3. Thanks to the recently approved PEOPLE-INT-2013 project the European/International Joint PhD has more than the minimum required 4 fellowships that must be made available yearly
4. Availability of a fully equipped multimedia laboratory
5. Availability of an adequate physical and virtual library

We seize the opportunity to thank all our partners who have sent updated information about their scientific productivity, as well as our research trainees who have sent updated information about their scientific and training activities, which are part of Sapienza Doctoral Evaluation Committee's evaluation criteria.

European/International Joint PhD in Social Representations and Communication Training Events 2014

International Summer School 2014 (Rome, It - July 13-19, 2014) Genesis, development and actuality of the Social Representation theory in more than fifty years (1961-2011 and beyond): the main paradigms and the "modeling approach"

The 2014 Edition of the International Summer School will be held in Rome on the 13-19 of July. This will be the 20th edition of the International Summer School started in 1995 and the 1st training event of the So.Re.Com Joint-IDP program (<http://www.europhd.eu/SoReComJointIDP>).

It will be aimed at presenting a general introduction/presentation of the overall So.Re.Com. Joint-IDP project based on the empirical meta-theoretical analysis of the literature on Social Representations, in order to take a stock of the scientific field developed in more than 50 years by mapping the development of different paradigms, multiple constructs, the related various research methods (qualitative and quantitative, experimental and field oriented, multi-step data analysis strategies, etc.), the wide range of the thematic areas, and their impact on the various applied fields within the multi-generational community of scientists and across different geo-cultural contexts. Therefore the program includes Key lecture aimed at illustrating previously published results and presentation of the current status of the research program on the meta-theoretical analysis of the Social Representation theory.

The International Summer School will also include:

1. INTENSIVE GROUP WORKING SESSIONS on participants' research projects, including:

- Questions, Answers and Group discussion of the ESR and other European/ International Joint PhD trainees with project leader (Annamaria de Rosa) and invited speakers from academic and non academic sectors: Brigido Camargo (UFSC, Brazil), Gina Philogene (CUNY, USA), Sylvain Lassare (IFSTTAR, France) and the members of the Executive Committee Andrei Holman (Romania) and Radim Marada (Czech Republic) among others
- Active participation by the ESR individual presentations, presenting the matching of their prior knowledge and interests with the research project focuses offered in the So.Re.Com. Joint-IDP call, their multi-languages skills and the planned future secondment by optimising the complementary resources training across the network
- @-learning activities: use of the Euro PhD web-auditorium, allowing connection with a wider number of participants or speakers selected/invited - even from outside the SoReCom Joint-IDP - to attend the event on-line via interactive video-web conference system
- Training in complementary and transferable skills provided by the non-academic partners
- Scientific networking
- Monitoring quality control sessions

2. INTERVIEWS FOR SELECTING NEW CANDIDATES for the European/International Joint Ph.D. in S.R. & C. reserved to the applicants for the a.y. 2014-15 by the European PhD Recruitment Board.;

3. DISSERTATION DEFENCE SESSION for the European/International Joint Ph.D. candidates in front of the International Final Jury

PARTICIPANTS:

- the research trainees enrolled in the European/International Ph.D. including the 13 Early Stage Researchers (E.S.R.), who will be selected among the applicants to the call launched in October 2013 (http://www.europhd.eu/html/_onda01/10/06.05.00.00.shtml - 31st March 2014)
- other applicants selected from any worldwide location for a face-to-face participation or via an interactive web-conference system

As in the previous events, the 20th edition of the International Summer School will integrate face-to-face and on-line communication. Therefore, in addition to the restricted number of the participants who will attend physically the event, other participants will be selected for on-line or face-to-face participation in the event. A specific basic and advanced training will be offered at the beginning of the event for the admitted on-line participants.

Detailed information about the 2014 International Summer School and APPLICATIONS FORM will soon be published on the European/International Joint Ph.D. in S.R. & C. Web site:
