So.Re.Com. Joint-IDP: activity report for month 28 (January 2016)

As foreseen by the So.Re.Com. Joint-IDP timeline (http://www.europhd.eu/html/_onda01/10/05.01.00.00.shtml) the following activities have been realized and implemented during the month of January 2016:

1. Early-Stage Researchers' 19th month of activities
2. The second integrated meeting of the Sapienza Supervisory Board on January 13, with the participation of the two representatives of the ESRs.
3. Submission of the revised First Periodic Report of the SoReCom Joint-IDP project to the REA on January 15.
4. Development of the SoReCom “A.S. de Rosa” @-library
5. Submission and transcription of the interviews by the ESRs.
6. Dissemination of the SoReCom Joint-IDP project information and of the integrated scientific community belonging to the SoReCom THEmatic NETwork through the SoReCom.THE.NET.@-NEWS and the dedicated web site <http://www.europhd.eu/SoReComJointIDP>
7. Day-to-day management of the SoReCom Joint-IDP (correspondence with partners, facilitating the early stage researcher's needs during their secondments, EC project officer, conference calls with the enterprise working on the platform, website updates, administrative management)
8. 29th International Lab Meeting - Winter Session 2016 (Rome - Italy, 24th - 27th January 2016)

The So.Re.Com Joint-IDP Activities

Meeting of the Integrated Sapienza Supervisory Board January 13, 2016

SoReCom Joint-IDP Sapienza Supervisory Board Members: Annamaria de Rosa, Giovanna Leone, Mauro Sarrica, Elena Bocci, Laura Dryjanska, integrated with one member from the Executive Committee (prof. Andrei Holman, University AliCuza Iasi, Romania: via Skype), and one member from the SoReCom Joint-IDP SB (Martha de Alba (Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana-Iztapalapa, UAMI, Mexico: via Skype) and integrated with the two elected ESR's representatives: Mihaela Gherman and Borja de Madaria, have discussed the following agenda:

- Scheduling the agenda for collective and individual ESR's meetings with the tutor and co-tutors for the project individualization
- Discussing the Program of the 29th International Lab Meeting - Winter Session 2016 (Rome - Italy, 24th - 27th January 2016)

In agreement with the first point in the agenda, a table of ESR's joint meetings with the project leader, the day by day tutor and co-tutors for the project individualization has been presented and confirmed by the Sapienza Supervisory Board Members. Prof. Martha de Alba confirmed to be available to attend online these joint meeting in her new role of additional co-tutor of three ESRs. Mihaela Gherman asked what the fellows were supposed to prepare for these joint meetings. Several input from the participants made clear the nature and the goals of such meetings aimed not only to guide the ESR to move step by steps toward the milestones established in the research project and individual timeline, but to identify together the best paths to individualise their research report, conference presentations, thesis and future articles interviewing the data and meta-data that in the meantime they are producing by meta-theoretical analyses of the literature and other research tools. Research questions to interview the data will be discussed during these meetings also in relation to the anchoring of the new knowledge acquired in the specific scientific field in relation to their previous background and prospective interests.

The So.Re.Com Joint-IDP Activities

In agreement with the second point in the Agenda – the program of 29th International Lab Meeting - Winter Session 2016 (Rome - Italy, 24th - 27th January 2016) - focussed around three main working groups (geo-cultural, paradigmatic and thematic oriented) with the active presentation by each ESR of their current research progress and main results achieved until now - has been presented as another way to implement one of the actions to promote higher awareness and identification with the overall project and its articulation with the individual research foci.

The organisational formula - centred around the three main working groups corresponding to the three main axes of the overall project – is quite different from the 2015 Winter Session in which they were introduced to the advanced training in the meta-theoretical analysis and is coherent with the different mature phase of their training.

Discussing what the ESRs are supposed to present during the Winter Session, Mauro Sarrica has proposed considering it as a preparation for the presentations during the XII International Conference on Social Representations with the upcoming deadline in February, which was discussed by all the participants.

Prof. de Rosa also shared information about the invitation by prof. Jorge Jesuino to jointly organised a round table in which at least two presentations based on 2 working groups (paradigmatic and thematic) may be constructed at team level, adopting the geo-cultural anchoring as background scenarios crossing both the two main foci: paradigmatic and thematic. Prof. de Rosa also anticipated a recent exploration of the whole corpus of abstracts and key words by Iramuteq in collaboration with Martina Latini, Laura Dryjanska and Elena Bocci and the intention to organise specific training group for the application of the Iramuteq software to specific sub-set of data corpus organised around the above mentioned dimensions. This step has been already announced to some of the ESRs (Filomena Berardi) who has submitted joint abstracts for the 2016 International Conference on Political Psychology concerning the thematic area connected with her research focus.

The theoretical aspects and the importance of title, as well as the form of presentation were emphasized by Giovanna Leone for the parts dedicated to the Presenting research progress, sharing ERS's ideas about results acquired by the multi-method research tools, cross-checking each other's work.

The So.Re.Com Joint-IDP Activities

The theoretical aspects and the importance of title, as well as the form of presentation were emphasized by Giovanna Leone for the parts dedicated to the Presenting research progress, sharing ERS's ideas about results acquired by the multi-method research tools, cross-checking each other's work:

Working groups focused on:

“Mapping the impact and dissemination of the social representation theory across different geo-cultural contexts”:

- “Europe”: the homeland by Ana Tomicic (Croatia)
- “Latin America”: the most fertilised scenario by Teresa Forte (Portugal)
- “North-America and other continents (Oceania, Asia, Africa), the new emerging scenarios” by Mihaela Alexandra Gherman (Romania)
- “Genesis and development of the different paradigmatic approaches in more than years of social representation theory: mapping theory, methods, thematic areas and applications”
- the “Structural paradigmatic approach” by Ioana Guralic (Romania)
- the “Socio-dynamic paradigmatic approach” by Marija Adela Gjorgjioska (Macedonia)
- the “Anthropological and ethnographic paradigmatic approach” ethnographic paradigmatic approach by Laura Arhiri (Romania)
- the “Dialogical, conversational and narrative paradigmatic approaches” by Maryia Kukharava (Belorussia)
- the “Modelling paradigmatic approach” by Agnese Pastorino (Italia)

“Taking stock of the Social Representations literature in various thematic fields of application”:

- “Science, Social Representations and Communication” by Aminat Ramazanova (Russia)
- “Social Representations and Environment” by Borja De Madaria Escudero (Spain)
- “Social Representations, Economy, Advertising, Marketing and Organizational Contexts” by Gabriela Monica Panzaru (Romania)
- “Social Representations, Community & Health” by Carlo Filiberto Aguilar (Mexico)
- “Social Representations & Politics: Multidimensional identities, intergroup relations, social movements and active minorities” by Filomena Berardi (Italia)

The So.Re.Com Joint-IDP Activities

Each working group is followed by discussion with the members of Sapienza Supervisory Board and all the participants (including the SoReCom Joint IDP fellows and the other doctoral trainees enrolled in the European/International joint PhD, including those enrolled in their first year from Canada, Mexico, Brazil, Romania, Portugal, and in the second year.

Indeed the program will start introducing the new participants recently enrolled in the program and with a presentation of the project leader about the “Taking a stock of the SoReCom Joint-IDP research progress and next milestones to be achieved”, followed by a joint intervention aimed at Presenting the current status of the new platform of the SoReCom “A.S. de Rosa” @-library by dr. Laura Dryjanska and Tania Santos (as first tester-user of the new platform).

On the second day a Key lecture by Jorge Jesuino (I.S.C.T.E.-IUL, Lisbon Portugal) entitled “Serge Moscovici and the trans-disciplinary thinking” will bring to the scientific program the reflection on the added value of the wide trans disciplinary horizon and the heuristic power of the Social Representation theory in the contemporary scenario of social science dealing with Nature, Culture and Science.

The program for the SoReCom Joint-IDP ESRs will be enriched by a session lead by an expert (Christofer Namurach) from the non academic partner (Contatto Lavoro) with a seminar on transferable skills entitles: “Personal and organizational branding strategies through the web 2.0: focus on the social representations of people and organization in the digital world”.

The third day will be dedicated to introducing the European PhD research trainees enrolled in the first year of the program in the basic training on the meta-theoretical analysis, starting from a session entitles “From the bibliographic repertory to the meta-theoretical analysis repertory and @-Library: How to perform a meta-theoretical analysis. Session reserved to research trainees enrolled in the 1st year of the European/International Joint PhD in S.R. & C.“. It will be followed by a session aimed at presenting “Sharing expertise on meta-theoretical analysis: a challenging example”.

The So.Re.Com. THEmatic NETwork Activities Upcoming International Events 2016

We are pleased to announce that the

EASP Small Group Meeting in Honor of Serge Moscovici

will take place in Paris, France

from the 17th to 18th of November 2016

Organizers: Juan A. Pérez (University of Valencia); Nikos Kalampalikis (University of Lyon); Saadi Lahlou (London School of Economics); Denise Jodelet (EHESS); Thémis Apostolidis (University of Aix-Marseille)

Contact: Juan A. Pérez: juan.a.perez@uv.es

The meeting aims to bring together junior and senior researchers to discuss theoretical aspects of Moscovici's work, his conceptual contributions, and the impact of his findings on social psychology. The meeting is therefore open to participation beyond the circle of past Moscovici's collaborators. Applications from PhD students are particularly welcome. We will examine how Moscovici's contributions can help to face the contemporary challenges of our discipline, if it wants to have societal impact: Rising tensions between communities, the necessity to help individuals change to more sustainable behaviour; new digital systems for social networking, increased intercultural contacts through globalization, emerging forms of collective intelligence (e.g. Wikipedia), etc..
